

Simple Gifts Corporation
Presents
Speaking the Language of Music

Instructed by Robert Alveraz

This is a 10 weekly 1-hour session

Objectives:

- To better prepare students for private instrumental lessons
- To encourage music theory learning in a more fun and productive way
- To build student confidence in reading, writing, and performing music
- To expand student vocabulary, similarities, and knowledge of various instruments

South Carolina Academic Standard Equivalency:

General Music: Standard 1: The student will sing and perform on instruments, alone with others, variety of music

Standard 2: The student will improvise, compose, and arrange music within specified guidelines

Standard 3: the student will read and notate music

Standard 4: the student will listen to, describe, analyze, and evaluate music and music performances.

Fees: $40 Registration (this will also register you for private lessons)
$100 course

Materials included: Recorder with accessories, syllabus, vocabulary sheet,

www.musicbysimplegifts.com